

Stallholder Information

For your Information:

Wigtown Festival Company is organising 'The Spring Kist' which will take place in the Main Hall and Foyer, County Buildings, Wigtown on Saturday 29 April and Sunday 30 April 2017 from 10am-4pm, alongside our Spring Tearoom which is run by our Festival volunteers from the Supper Room. This event will be part of Wigtown Spring Book Weekend (organised by The Association of Wigtown Booksellers), with events taking place in venues throughout the town.

The cost for a stall is £40 + VAT for both days (£48). This price includes a table measuring 160 x 80cm. Smaller tables measuring 80cm square are also available at £20 + VAT for both days (£24). If more than 1 table or additional space is required, the price quoted for an additional table will be due. Our aim is for a wide variety of stalls showcasing local and national artists, craft makers, food and drink producers. Applications must be received by 5pm, Tuesday 28 February - we will contact you by 5pm, Thursday 2 March to let you know if you have been successful. For further information, please contact Claire Nash: claire@wigtownbookfestival.com or telephone 01988 402036.

Application Process

Please complete and return the application form (found below) along with a copy of your Public Liability Insurance certificate. If you are a food or drink producer, please also include a copy of your Food Hygiene certificate and a copy of evidence that you are registered with your local Environmental Health Department. These can be submitted either by post or electronically by 5pm, Tuesday 28 February 2017. Any applications received after this date will not be considered.

Please note: Applications for both days only please.
