Children's Creative Writing Competition 2020

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Entries for all categories can only be submitted through www.creativewritingawards.co.uk.
- Entries must be in PDF or .doc (Word) format.
- This competition is open to children living in Dumfries & Galloway. If your postcode begins DG, you are eligible to enter.
- The competition launches on Tuesday 10 March 2020.
- The closing date for entries is 5pm on Sunday 26 April 2020. Any entries submitted after this time will not be judged.
- The competition is open to any child aged between 5 and 18 on the day the competition launches: Tuesday 10 March 2020.
- Children should enter the appropriate category for their age as at Tuesday 10 March 2020.
- Entries must be entirely the child's own original work.
- All entries are judged anonymously, and the name or age of the child must not appear on the document or in the document title.
- Entries may be submitted in English or Scots.
- Only one entry is permitted per child.
- Parents should check the email address carefully before submission as this is the only contact information requested. You will receive a confirmation of your entry by email. If you do not receive this, please initially check your spam folder or contact Wigtown Festival Company to confirm it has been received. Tel 01988 402036 or email andy@wigtownbookfestival.com.
- The winning children will be contacted by email on Friday 15 May 2020.
- The judge's decision is final. The winning entry plus two runners up in each category will be displayed at Wigtown Book Festival.
- The copyright of each entry remains with the writer. By accepting these terms and conditions, entrants agree to the display of their work and to its publication on wigtownbookfestival.com. These will contain the name and age of the child.
- Prizes are not exchangeable.
- If you wish to withdraw your entry before the announcement of winners, please contact andy@wigtownbookfestival.com before 11 May 2020.
