Shiftin

Ah seen the Cailleach
waken't bi
the lilac shades
o autumn cairies
flittin ower
her face.

She rose wi a stang
tae peesies soonin
roon the derklins
mairsh,
pued the sky
doon, lik a pelt
about her shooders
an let scaum
tae silhouette
ivery rig.
She restit
oan her staff
till she heard
fae the nor'east gales,
then lit oot
a hoast that lownt
tae a beast's souch
and hirsilt yont,
a hert's spit
in the winter nicht

ALASTAIR REID PAMPHLET PRIZE

Named in memory of the local poet who was one of Scotland's foremost literary figures, renowned for poetry, prose and translation.

Wigtown became Scotland's National Book Town in 1998, a mecca for booklovers drawn to this beautiful area of south-west Scotland by its secondhand bookshops and award-winning autumn literary festival. To find out more, go to www.explorewigtown.com.

Featuring more than 250 events, the 2020 Wigtown Book Festival takes place from 25 September - 4 October 2020. www.wigtownbookfestival.com.
